THE AQUEDUCT MEETING.

Neposist Beaten by Frelinghuysen
in a Dead Heat Run-Off.

New York, May 2.—The chief event on today's racing card at Aqueduct led to some sensational racing. It was the Jamaica Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, and four youngsters accepted, with Neposist a 4-to-5 favorite and Fre-linghuysen and Advance equal second choices, at 3 to 1. Maher, on Neposist, gave the best of a ragged battle and showed the way to the stand. Frelinghuysen, then forged slightly ahead, but Nepo-nist came again in the final rally and made a dead heat. The odds swung round in favor of Frelinghuysen when the owners decided to run off. Neposist again got away, but the favorite ran him down in the stretch and won decisively by four lengths. Maher used his whip unmercifully on the lower and also showed a disregard for the ethics at the post. The stewards fined him $500 and set him down for the rest of the meeting. Summary—First race—About seven furlongs. Kinkinnick, 1 to 4; won. Dr. Parker second, James Tod third. Time, 1:24.
Second race—Four and one-half furlongs. Mike Strain, 11 to 5; won. Lampogio second, Trumpet third. Time, 1:06.

third. Time, 1:14 1/2.

RACING AT NEWPORT.

Good Weather, a Fast Track, and Interesting Sport.

Cincinnati, May 2.—With favorable weather and a good crowd the attendance was again very large today at Newport.
The track was fast and the sport excellent. One favorite, four close second choices, and a long shot, were the main features. Summary—

1; won. Malahide second, Katie Bramble
third. Time, 1:13 1/2.

The weather for ball playing was never more desirable. Glass warm and clear.
Horses have been driven back to winter quarters by the generous heat of the sun, and there is not a complaint of "out of condition" from these causes heard anywhere along the line. After a short practice in the morning the players lined up at the treasurer's office and received their first installment of salary. When it came to signing the pay roll it was found there was no one absent without leave. All were present and in good condition, and after receiving the congratulations of the management for good work up to date and the assurances upon their part that they would do better work in the future the meeting adjourned.

Candidly is progressing rapidly and is anxious to get back in the game. At his own request he was played at third yesterday.
The return of Hulien to the game adds weight to the feeling that he is one of the most timely batters on the team and exercises splendid judgment on the bases. As a run-getter he is in class No. 1.

The experimental stage is fast passing away, and the Senators who a week ago were pronounced "no good" are giving evidence of the progress they have made upon a casual, careless, or prejudiced standpoint were unjust and unfair. A different sentiment altogether now prevails.
Their three contests with Hanlon's Superior players, which were all won, and a month from today they will be going at a pace that will be gratifying to all friends of the sport here.

Yesterday's game was rather uninteresting. Washington went to the bat. Get-tman, the first man up, went out on a fly to Anderson, Mercer out from Daly to Mc-Gann, and Cline out on a fly to Mc-Gann. The trouble began in the second inning, which lost the game to the Senators. Casey hit a grounder to Davis, who threw to the pitcher, who failed to make the throw. Kelley got away, and Kelley went out at first, and Kelley got his base on an error. Casey going to third.
